Re: Confirmation of Relationship between Expatrio Global Services GmbH and CohortGo, a Flywire Company

We are delighted to officially confirm the relationship between Expatrio Global Services GmbH (hereinafter referred to as "Expatrio") and CohortGo, a Flywire company (hereinafter referred to as "CohortGo"), a subsidiary of Flywire Corporation (Flywire) (Nasdaq: FLYW).

Expatrio is a leading global platform dedicated to providing comprehensive solutions for international students and expatriates, facilitating their seamless transition and integration into Germany. With a commitment to innovation and excellence, Expatrio offers a range of services including blocked account, insurance, and other essential solutions tailored to the unique needs of the international community.

CohortGo, as part of Flywire Corporation, is a distinguished entity specializing in global payment solutions and software services with bank accounts across the globe (including Australia, United Kingdom, among others). Flywire Corporation, listed on Nasdaq under the symbol FLYW, is a renowned global payments enablement company that has consistently demonstrated its commitment to simplifying cross-border transactions and facilitating international financial processes.

Expatrio and CohortGo have a services agreement that brings together the strengths of each company, leveraging the expertise and resources of both organizations to enhance the overall experience for international students and expatriates. Through this collaboration, Expatrio aims to further streamline and improve the global payments of the relocation process, offering our users a secure, efficient, and user-friendly platform for addressing their needs.

Thank you for your dedication and commitment to this relationship.

Sincerely,
